KING LEOPOLD ARRAIGNED IN THE PEACE CONGRESS.

E. T. Morel Censures Belgian Ruler for Cruelties in the Congo Free State.

Roston, Oct. 7.-King Leopold of Belgium was assailed for his policy as sovereign of the Congo Free State by E. T. Morel of England at a public meeting this afternoon in connection with the sessions of the International Peace Congress. Morel charged that the King was personally responsible in a large measure for sileged crueitles practiced on the natives of the Congo Free State, in the terrific endeavors of monopolistic commercial orendeavors of monopolistic commercial organizations to obtain from the country all the livery and rubber possible.

The King was octended by George Herbert Head of Cambridge, England, who submitted that King Leopold had done all possible to stop the alleged cruelties.

The Government policy in the Congo also was bitterly denounced by the Reverend W. M. Morrison, for seven years a missionary in Congo.

The congress to-day accepted a report of the Committee on Propaganda, recommending that the congress in 1905 be heid at Laucerne, Switzerland. One of the first things which the congress did to-day was to adopt resolutions recommending that all nations enter into a treaty insuring, in case of dispute between countries, that the difference would be submitted for settlement to a court created by a union of all the Powers.

A dinner was given to-night, at which the foreign delegates were guests. Speeches were made by Bishop Percival of England, the Baroness von Suttner, Booker T, Washington and others.

Hale Fire Fighters, on the Pike. The New York Tenement House actual fire scene is grand, thrilling, beautiful; worth fifty times price of admission.

SAYS SHE WILL REPEAT ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

Mrs. Jennie M. Kinder Declares It Will Be Useless for Physicians

Mrs. Jennie M. Kinder, who attempted suicide in Barr's department store yesterday afternoon, declared later at the City Hospital that she will repeat the act if her life is saved this time, and it will be useless to prevent her death.

Before placing a chloroform-saturated handkerchief over her face, which she intended should end her life, Mrs. Kinder wrote the following note:

"A SANE SUICIDE "

wrote the following note:

"A SANE SUICIDE."

This is to say that I am Mrs. Jennie M. Kinder. 467 Page boulevard. Please notify F. M. MoKee of the firm of McKee & Harrigan. 1134 Chestnut street, and Miss Judy. 467 Page avenue. Also notify my mother through D. J. Brick. Oscola. Mc. care local telephone exchange: also E. W. Kinder. Hichmond. Mc. care local telephone exchange. Deliver all letters found on me to mother and brother.

I am not crazy, but a sane suicide.

Mrs. Kinder was found in a retiring room by one of the employes of the store. An ambulance was summoned and she was hurried to the City Hospital, where she made the statement that ill health had prompted her attempt to end her life, and that she will repeat it if the doctors save her, as she prefers death to constant suffering. The physicians say it is doubtful whether she will recover.

Mrs. Kinder is a widow. She returned to St. Louis two years ago, following the death of her husband, according to her cousin, Flavius McKee, whose name is mentioned in the note. She taught music for awhile in East St. Louis, but a street-tar accident made it necessary for her to give up this work. She was 27 years old. Mrs. Kinder lived at the home of Mrs. C. H. Reader, No. 445 Page boulevard, and before leaving the house yeaterday wrote a note to Mrs. Reader thanking her and her daughter for their kindness, and stating that she did not expect to return.

COTTON PRICES DECLINE AFTER EARLY STRENGTH.

on Heavy Profit-Taking Sales.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Oct. 7.—The cotton market developed further strength and activity early to-day. The bear clique continued to fight the market, but it seems to have lost control, and there is now more disposition manifested by the generality of the trading element, as well as the more conservaing element, as well as the more conservative and oid-line commission-houses to adopt a more cautious policy pending further developments calculated to make the crop outlook more reassuring.

The market was reactionary during the afternoon on profit-taking sales and slackening of demand from commission-houses and the South, with reports that spinners and exporters had refused to follow the advance, but were more inclined to withdraw from the market for lower prices.
These conditions encouraged the bear clique to renow its activity, and the pressure was so pronounced in the late trading that the market lost all of its early rise of 10 to 14 points, and declined about 5 to 8 points from last night's closling.

rather simple affair. The volume of business was fairly large and the sentiment was pretty evenly divided. The weekly statistics were, on the whole, distinctly bearish and would in ordinary circumstances have told. All these items were, however, offset by the news that the farmer was still 'standing par' and that thousands of bales were being hauled back to plantations.

"The situation is no less novel than interesting by all accounts exporters' commitments for October shipment are enormous, and it may thus happen that the trade will be brought face to face with a squeeze in the actual stuff. Of course, the known accumulations in the interior are a two-circle sword; for if the farmer should not be able to carry his deal through, the market would have to bear the strain of a double load. It would be the merest waske of time to guess at the issue of the struggle. If the farmer wins operators will henceforth have to recken with the new South as one of the most optent factors in the determination of values. A couple of weeks will suffice to tell the story."
